This breathtaking, exquisite family home is set on an acre of land and is located in a new estate of Gulmarrad, surrounded by other modern homes on acreage. The suburb of Gulmarrad is situated near the town of Maclean and is a short drive to the golden, sandy beaches of Yamba and Brooms Head. This superb property with its 'natural bushland backdrop and beautifully design home is the 'country to coast' dream many families are looking for.

The quality built home offers executive styling with an abundance of open plan living areas both indoors and out, to maximise the feeling of space and the appreciation of the land and surrounds.
